

NJ Victims of Crime Compensation Office

FY 2019 Report

New Jersey Office of the Attorney General

Victims of Crime Compensation Office

Forward

INTRODUCTION

The mission of the Victims of Crime Compensation Office (VCCO) is to provide financial reimbursement to crime victims for out of pocket expenses resulting from their victimization. In carrying out its mission, VCCO is mindful of the special needs of crime victims and their right to fairness, compassion, dignity and respect when seeking VCCO benefits. In Fiscal Year 2019, VCCO's staff consisted of 33 dedicated full-time employees available to serve all New Jersey crime victims.

A victim seeking VCCO benefits may receive a maximum award of up to $25,000. If a victim's injury is catastrophic, meaning the victim has lost permanent use of a bodily function, the maximum award increases up to an additional $35,000.

Under VCCO's federal and State mandates, VCCO is the "payer of last resort" — meaning a claimant must exhaust all other reimbursement options available to them (i.e., insurance benefits, workers' compensation benefits, charity care benefits, etc.) prior to making a claim (N.J.S.A. 52:4B-12 and 19; N.J.A.C. 13:75-9.1). However, VCCO has the authority to make expedited awards if it determines that the claimant is likely eligible for compensation, has no other means to receive emergency funds, and will suffer undue hardship if such funds are not available. (N.J.S.A. 52:4B-10.1). Generally, funeral and relocation expenses are the most frequently requested VCCO expedited benefits sought by claimants.

FISCAL YEAR -2019

In Fiscal Year 2019, VCCO employees continued to serve New Jersey crime victims with fairness, compassion, dignity and respect. In keeping with its mission to reimburse and assist crime victims and their families, VCCO provided over $11.1 million in compensation benefits to New Jersey residents. This represents an increase of approximately $ 2,200,000 from FY 2018. This dramatic increase is primarily due to the FY2018 regulatory amendments that increased maximum awards.

GURBIR S. GREWAL
Attorney General

VCCO continued to make community outreach and training a top priority for FY 2019. VCCO increased public awareness of its benefits and services by: conducting 27 VCCO trainings throughout the State; attending 12 community and victims' rights events; setting up 32 VCCO table displays at various community events; and providing VCCO staff as speakers at three victims' rights events. As a result, VCCO increased its community outreach efforts by over 13% from FY 2018. These efforts included the initiation of a pilot program at the Jersey City Municipal Court, which provided undeserved victims with education of VCCO services, benefits, and guidance on the application process.

As a member of the 9/11 Memorial Committee, the VCCO assisted surviving family members with transportation to attend New York City's 2019 9/11 Memorial Service.

Looking ahead to FY 2020, VCCO has secured a federal grant to update its case processing system. The new system will allow claimants to upload required documents, check the status of their application in real time, and will provide a phone application where claimants can access their VCCO files via smartphone. VCCO anticipates that these improvements will help expedite claim processing and make it easier for claimants to file VCCO applications.

VCCO is committed to serving crime victims and their families. VCCO staff is ready, willing and able to assist those affected emotionally, financially and/or physically by a crime. If you or someone you know has been the victim of a crime, you may qualify for reimbursement, so please contact VCCO, we are here to help.

About VCCO

VCCO's Mission

VCCO's mission is to provide compensation to innocent victims of violent crime for particular expenses they incur as a result of the crime. In carrying out its mission, VCCO is mindful of the special needs of those victimized by crime and their right to be treated with fairness, compassion and respect. Per state law, VCCO is a payer of last resort and victims must first exhaust other resources.

Funding/Revenue Resources

VCCO is funded by penalties assessed in both Municipal and Superior Courts. Additional funding comes from the Federal Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) compensation grant, a State appropriation, and the Commissary Surcharge on all items purchased in Department of Corrections (DOC) facilities.

Historical Snap Shot

- ♦ 1971: The Violent Crime Compensation Board (VCCB) was established by the Criminal Injury Compensation Act to help victims recover from the effects of violent crimes by providing financial assistance to victims and their families — including payments to victim service providers — to help alleviate the economic and emotional burdens of victimization. VCCB was organized as a quasi-judicial three-commissioner board.
- ♦ 1981: The number of Commissioners was increased to five, with three of the five required to be attorneys licensed to practice in New Jersey.
- ♦ 1995: The name was changed to Victims of Crime Compensation Board, regarded as a criminal justice agency with the goals of obtaining criminal history records and penalties.
- ♦ 2007: The name changed again to Victims of Crime Compensation Agency (VCCA); the Commissioners were eliminated, and the agency was placed in the Department of Treasury.
- ♦ 2008: Through Governor Corzine's Reorganization Plan No. 001-2008, the VCCA was relocated to the Department of Law and Public Safety and renamed the Victims of Crime Compensation Office (VCCO), as it remains today.
- ♦ 2013: The VCCO implemented electronic filing, an innovation which allowed victims to file applications from their homes and upload necessary documents. Government and nonprofit agencies representing victims can also utilize this convenient process.
- ♦ 2014: The VCCO deployed online tracking for providers, which reduces the volume of telephone calls to staff and allows more time spent processing open claims.
- ♦ 2015: Due to technological enhancements including online filing, online tracking and electronic signatures, the agency's turn-around-time for processing claims was reduced from an average of 4.5 months to an average of 2.5 months.
- ♦ 2016: The VCCO implemented a major outreach initiative, increasing the number events over 70%. Events included reaching out to domestic violence victim advocacy programs and to the Latino community.
- ♦ 2017: The VCCO continued enhancing its online case-processing system. With the latest improvement, claimants who did not file a claim online now have the capability to access the system to obtain claim status and prior correspondence.
- ♦ 2018: The VCCO created a bilingual investigative unit where Spanish-speaking claimants are assigned to a bilingual investigator to better serve victims by preventing a language barrier. The caps were also increased under regulation for various benefits, including counseling, relocation, funeral expenses, transportation costs, and attorney fees.
- ♦ 2019: The VCCO was awarded a federal grant for IT modernization of its case-processing system, which includes proposed enhancements to on-line filing and applicant access.

Program Overview

Application

Claim applications are available in English and Spanish and can be obtained directly from VCCO's offices in Newark and Trenton. Claim applications can also be obtained from a County Prosecutor's Victim Witness Advocate, hospitals, police stations and certain nonprofit agencies that work with victims of crime. Additionally, under state law, every police station and place of emergency medical care must make information booklets, pamphlets and any other pertinent information available, including blank applications, relating to the availability of crime victims' compensation benefits.

An application for compensation may be filed by (1) the victim, (2) a dependent of deceased victim, (3) an authorized person acting on behalf of a victim, or (4) any other person who has demonstrated an eligible expense, such as funeral and medical expenses, which they have incurred on behalf of the victim, or have become responsible for due to the victimization.

Applications can be submitted online, in person, by mail or fax. VCCO staff are available to assist victims/claimants and their families during the application process. Walk-ins are welcome at VCCO's Newark and Trenton offices on scheduled days and also by appointment. Please see the information below.

Eligibility

Eligible claimants must meet the following requirements:

- The claim must be filed within three years from the date of the personal injury or death, or at a later time if VCCO determines that “good cause” exists for the delayed filing.*
- The crime must be reported to the police within nine months after it occurs, or within nine months from the time it was known or believed to have occurred, but may be considered when reported to the police after nine months if the VCCO determines that “good cause” exists for the delay.*
- The crime must occur in New Jersey (residency not required) or the victim must be a New Jersey resident who became a victim in another state or jurisdiction that does not have a crime victim compensation program or has a program which has not provided full compensation for the crime-related losses.
- The victim must cooperate with the police and the prosecutor’s office; however, eligibility is not dependent upon conviction or prosecution of the offender.
- The claimant must not be the offender or an accomplice of the offender.
- No compensation shall be awarded if compensation to the victim proves to be substantial unjust enrichment to the offender.
- The victim or claimant must not have open warrants or active criminal charges.

 Good cause can include, but is not limited to, instances where the victim or the victim’s dependents are not appropriately informed of VCCO benefits, where a crime induced incapacity prevents the timely filing of a claim, or where victims have demonstrated a mentally induced incapacity. For victims under 18 years old, the filing deadline is extended three years beyond their 18th birthday.*

Compensation

Compensable Benefits

Compensation payable to a victim, providers, and to all other claimants sustaining economic loss because of injury to or death of that victim, may not exceed $25,000 in the aggregate, and may include:

- Medically related expenses not covered by other insurance or benefits programs.
- Mental health counseling up to $20,000 for a direct victim and up to $7,000 for immediate family members.
- Loss of support for dependents in homicide cases and from the offender in domestic violence/sexual assault cases. Maximum of $600 per week not to exceed 48 months.

Claims Processing

Intake Phase

Upon VCCO's receipt of an application, the claim is opened and given a claim number. An acknowledgment of receipt is sent to the applicant; if needed, additional information is requested. Requests for emergency assistance are reviewed promptly. All applications are screened for denial on a procedural basis, including expiration of time for filing, non-compensable crimes or outstanding warrants issued for a claimant.

Bill Review

Bills are screened for proper name and address, federal tax ID number, Current Procedural Terminology (CPT) codes and date of service. In cases where information is missing, those bills (and collection notices) are returned to the provider together with a letter stating the need for an itemized bill. Once all of the required information is received, bills are entered into the VCCO's Claims Processing System.

Eligibility Phase

Upon VCCO's receipt of the police report, bills and supporting records, the claim is assigned to an investigator for eligibility determination. The assigned investigator will review all the circumstances surrounding the incident. In reviewing the case circumstances, the case investigator will communicate with police and prosecutorial personnel and secure related information from the Courts. The investigator will then make a recommendation either that the claim is eligible or ineligible for compensation pursuant to statutory and/or regulatory requirements. Their superior will review the recommendation and either approve, deny or ask for additional information.

Compensation Phase

Once a claim is deemed eligible for compensation, the investigator will verify losses by:

1) communicating directly with providers of medical services, securing insurance benefit statements and 2) gathering loss of earnings and disability payment information to determine compensation.

Payment Processing:

After the Order of Payment is written and approved, the case is transferred to the Accounting Unit. The voucher is reconciled to the order and then mailed to the provider. Upon receipt of a signed voucher, the Accounting Unit processes the payment and submits it to the Office of the Attorney General (OAG) administrative staff for approval in the New Jersey Comprehensive Financial System (a Treasury System).

If a claimant is eligible to receive a direct payment that payment is mailed out to the claimant on the next business day after the Order of Payment is signed.

Appeal Process

- If a claim is denied or determined eligible with no compensation or limited pay, the claimant has the right to an appeal before the Victims of Crime Compensation Review Board.
- An appeal request may be made by the claimant or their attorney upon receipt of the VCCO's written determination. In some cases, the claimant may provide new information enabling the VCCO to reverse the denial without the need of an appeal.
- Hearings are held throughout the year and hearing dates are listed on VCCO's website.
- An appeal is scheduled and notification of the appeal date is made at least 15 days prior to the appeal.
- A hearing is held before the Victims of Crime Compensation Review Board, where the claimant and VCCO present their respective positions.
- The VCCO is represented by has legal counsel at the appeal. Claimants also have the right to be represented by an attorney-at-law duly licensed to practice in the State of New Jersey or qualified to make such appearance pursuant to the Rules governing the Courts of New Jersey.
- The Review Board is made up of five members appointed by the Governor's Office; all are Special State Officers who serve without compensation.
- The Review Board considers all of the relevant evidence along with any applicable statutes or regulations and may affirm the denial, overturn the denial, or return the matter to VCCO to obtain additional information necessary to render a decision.
- The Review Board issues a Final Order and Decision on the appeal within three months of the hearing date.
- If the VCCO's decision is overturned by the Review Board, the claim is processed accordingly.
- An appeal of the Review Board's Final Order and Decision must be made to the Appellate Division of the New Jersey Superior Court within 45 days of receiving the Review Board's Final Order and Decision.

Community Outreach and Training

In 2019, VCCO continued to make community outreach and training a top priority, while continuing to serve victims and raise awareness of VCCO services.

VCCO initiated a pilot program at the Jersey City Municipal Court to reach underserved victims by increasing the staff's knowledge of VCCO services and providing crime victims information about VCCO benefits and the application process. As a member of the 9/11 Memorial Committee, VCCO arranged for the transportation of surviving family members to New York City's 2019 9/11 Memorial Service.

Further, in order to increase public awareness of VCCO's compensation benefits, led and participated in a variety of community events, including but not limited to, the following: 27 training courses led by VCCO staff, 12 community and victims' rights events, 32 VCCO table displays, and 3 speaking engagements.

Crime Victims' Rights Week

2019 Ceremony

Every year, the State Office of Victim-Witness Advocacy and the Victims of Crime Compensation Office of the New Jersey Division of Criminal Justice co-host the annual Crime Victims' Rights Week event. The 2019 event was held on April 11 at The College of New Jersey. The 2019 National Theme was: "Honoring Our Past. Creating Hope for the Future." The theme emphasized the historical landmarks of the past and focused its attention on the future expectations of the victims' rights movement.

AAG Veronica Allende, Director of the Division of Criminal Justice, presided over the event, which included remarks from Attorney General Gurbir S. Grewal. Attorney General Grewal emphasized the importance of victim services and resources, including the role of VCCO, service providers, and law enforcement, who all assist victims in seeking justice. The event featured a panel discussion, two keynote speakers, an award ceremony, exhibitors, and entertainment provided by Trenton Central High School's Visual and Performance Arts Academy Orchestra.

The panel discussion was moderated by Pamela Jacobs, JD, Executive Director of the NJ Coalition to End Domestic Violence (NJCEDV). The panelists included: Rob Baran (NJ Coalition Against Sexual Assault (NJCASA)), Wil DuBose (NJCEDV), and Jonel Vilches (Office for Violence Prevention & Victim Assistance, Rutgers University). The panel discussion entitled "Men of Strength," explored the evolution of the male role in victims' services and the importance of male engagement in fostering attitude changes about violence.

Jeffrey Bucholtz, Director of We End Violence, was a keynote speaker and Workshop Instructor, who delivered a message that inspired hope and the need for fostering a collaborative and safe culture for victims and survivors. After the ceremony, Mr. Bucholtz provided training on identifying cultural myths, violence prevention, and building alliances. The second keynote speaker was filmmaker, writer and activist - Byron Hurt. From a social justice viewpoint, he delivered insight about victimization and exposure to violence in films.

The event also recognized four deserving individuals who were the recipients of the OAG Excellence Awards for Victims' Justice. Award winners were as follows:

Endurance Award

Pamela Johnson, Executive Director, Jersey City Antiviolence Coalition Movement)

Gladiator Award

Timothy Savage, Detective, NJ Division of Criminal Justice

Ronald W. Reagan Award

Catholic Charities – Diocese of Trenton

Crime Victims' Rights Award

Helen Archontou, Chief Executive Officer, YMCA Bergen County

These individuals have consistently raised standards by demonstrating extraordinary commitment, endurance, hope, and assurance while delivering services to victims.

The event was attended by over 150 stakeholders from law enforcement communities, victim-witness advocates, medical/mental health professionals, and allied professionals, that gathered together to not only strengthen victim/survivors, but to support their recovery and promote awareness of services and criminal justice procedures. As such, there were 12 organizations from various government and non-profit sectors who provided direct services as well as distributed over 1,000 resource materials and promotional giveaways. The purpose of this event reaffirmed the challenges and the ongoing commitment to ensuring victims' justice.

Savings Achieved

through Third-Party Review of Medical Bills

Continuing through Fiscal Year 2018, the Victims of Crime Compensation Office contracted with a bill review service to ensure that submitted bills are deemed “reasonable and customary” for the services provided. As a result, nearly $1 million was saved in Fiscal Year 2019.
