NO CONTEST: Seven seconds after the start #5 appeared to jump something on the track and went down. Driver Braxten Boyd was thrown from the race bike and hit the ground and laid motionless for several seconds. The horse got up and ran loose, was caught quickly and only suffered minor abrasions. While the horse was loose and the driver was down, and knowing the field of horses would have to go by the driver shortly after the finish, the Judges made the decision to declare the race a No Contest for the safety of everyone involved. Driver Braxten Boyd received medical attention and although he did not sustain a serious injury, did take off his remaining drives.
