Commissioner Perez made a motion to approve the public and executive minutes of the April 24, 2024 special Commission meeting. Commissioner Vetrano seconded the motion and all Commissioners voted yes.

CONSIDER THE INITIAL DECISION IN JACOB STILLWELL V. NEW JERSEY RACING COMMISSION, OAL DOCKET NO. RAC 01953-23.

Executive Director Nason stated that amateur driver, Jacob Stillwell ("Petitioner"), drove the horse "JS Peyton" in the 5th race at Freehold Raceway on January 7, 2023. After the race, a NJRC veterinarian noted "ten or so" welt marks on the right hip of "JS Peyton" and she notified the judges.

Executive Director Nason noted that the judges did not witness any violations of the whipping rule while observing the live race and upon review of the video recording of the race, the judges did not identify any apparent violations of the whipping rule such as raising the whip or failing to pause to give the horse a chance to respond. However, the welt marks on the horse did indicate that the driver violated the section of the whipping rule that prohibits causing harm to the horse.

Executive Director Nason stated that the Board of Judges conducted a hearing with Petitioner on February 2, 2023 and determined that he violated N.J.A.C. 13:71-20.15(a) and (b)(1). N.J.A.C. 13:71-20.15(a) prohibits “[t]he brutal use of a whip” and 20.15(b)(1) prohibits the driver from causing “an injury, visible or not, to the horse with the whip.”

Executive Director Nason advised that because this is Petitioner’s second violation of the NJRC’s whipping rule within a year, the judges imposed a 10-day suspension and $1,000 fine.

Executive Director stated that Petitioner appealed and the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law. On April 24, 2024, the Administrative Law Judge (“ALJ”) issued an initial decision which affirmed the findings of violation and the 10-day suspension and $1,000 fine imposed by the Board of Judges. The ALJ did not accept Petitioner’s testimony that the horse was not harmed.

Commissioner Arnone made a motion to adopt the initial decision. Commissioner DeMarzo seconded the motion and all Commissioners voted yes.

The Executive Director advised that there was a handout available concerning the breakdown of New Jersey wagering on the 2024 Kentucky Derby day on Saturday, May 4, 2024.

Jason M. Settlemoir of New Meadowlands Racetrack thanked Executive Director Nason for her service on the Commission and all of her help.

She stated that New Jersey has strong leadership with Governor Murphy and Attorney General Platkin. She thanked the Commissioners and Racing Commission staff and noted it has been an honor to work with them.

There were no additional comments or questions.
