New Jersey Office of Administrative Law

Press Release

The Office of Administrative Law (OAL) is publishing a notice of proposal in the March 20, 2017, New Jersey Register at 49 N.J.R. 489(a) to adopt as new rules, the previously expired rules: Special Hearing Rules on Civil Service Commission Hearings, N.J.A.C. 1:4A. The rules apply to matters transmitted to the OAL by the Civil Service Commission (CSC) involving major discipline, resignation not in good standing, and termination from service at the conclusion of a working test period due to unsatisfactory performance; the discovery procedures for cased other than major discipline, termination case; limitations on post-hearing submissions; and termination of law enforcement officers from approved school or program for failure to meet statutory standards.

All notices and proposals can also be found on the OAL's website at http://www.state.nj.us/oal/rules/proposals .
