We strive to protect and serve by not only responding to incidents, but also proactively addressing issues that impact the long-term well-being of our residents. A key part of this mission is educating youth about the dangers of substance abuse and making investments that reduce risk in the future. During this reporting period, the police department purchased Fatal Vision Opioid Goggles to support our outreach in the high school. These tools allow students to experience the simulated impairments caused by opioid use in a safe and controlled setting, reinforcing the dangers of misuse in a way that lectures alone cannot achieve. By investing in prevention and education, we are aligning our spending decisions with our values of safeguarding youth, promoting healthy choices, and strengthening community resilience against the opioid crisis.

Research consistently shows that interactive and experiential learning methods are more effective at influencing decision-making in adolescents than passive instruction alone. The goggles provide a safe, hands-on tool that allows high school students to experience the simulated effects of opioid impairment, reinforcing the dangers of misuse in a memorable way. This initiative aligns with recommended opioid remediation uses focused on prevention and education, while also supporting our subdivision's strategic priority of reducing future substance abuse through early intervention.

11	Please choose the length of time of this program's duration:	5+ years
12	What is the anticipated number of unduplicated clients this program will reach annually?	0
13	Please state this program's statement of impact.	The acquisition of automatic defibrillators and medical gloves is critical to enhancing our emergency response capabilities during drug overdose incidents. While the administration of Narcan remains the first line of intervention, there are circumstances where it may not be sufficient to revive a victim. In such cases, the immediate availability of defibrillators can prove lifesaving. Medical gloves are likewise essential to ensure responder safety and to maintain proper sanitary conditions while providing care. These purchases directly support our mission to preserve life, protect first responders, and strengthen our community's ability to respond effectively to the ongoing overdose crisis.
14	What key performance indicators are you tracking to ensure success of the program (for example, # of services provided, # of people served, # of naloxone kits distributed)?

	Other:	Response Readiness: Percentage of units/vehicles equipped with AEDs and gloves. Average time to access and deploy AEDs during overdose incidents. Operational Usage: Number of overdose-related calls where AEDs were deployed. Number of overdose responses where medical gloves were used. Frequency of successful AED operation during overdose emergencies.
15	How frequently are you measuring the tracked key performance indicators?	Semi-annually
16	What outcomes or impact does the program aim to achieve? How do you plan to measure or track that impact?	The intended outcome of this investment is to increase survival rates among individuals experiencing drug overdoses by ensuring responders are equipped with the proper tools to provide immediate, comprehensive medical care. The impact of having medical gloves and portable defibrillators readily available is twofold: it enhances responder safety and significantly improves the likelihood of a positive patient outcome in cases where Narcan administration alone is not effective. Ultimately, this initiative strengthens our community's emergency response capacity and demonstrates a commitment to safeguarding public health and saving lives.
17	Primary Category:	Harm Reduction and Overdose Prevention
18	The following are other categories that may apply (include all categories with the exception of the Primary category you chose above).	Diversion and Re-entry Support; Treatment

19	Please select the Schedule B strategy(ies) that fits the primary focus of this program:	Treat Opioid Use Disorder (OUD), Support People in Treatment and Recovery, Prevent Misuse of Opioids, Prevent Overdose Deaths and Other Harms (Harm Reduction), First Responders

20	Please explain how this program will address opioid use disorder and any co-occurring substance use disorders or mental health conditions through evidence-based or evidence-informed practices or strategies.	This program directly addresses the challenges of opioid use disorder by ensuring that first responders are equipped to manage the most critical and life-threatening aspect of the condition—overdose. While treatment and recovery services are essential long-term solutions, the immediate priority during an overdose is preserving life so that individuals have the opportunity to access those services. By providing medical gloves and portable defibrillators, in addition to the administration of Narcan, this program ensures that responders can deliver comprehensive, life-saving care even when complications arise. In doing so, it not only reduces fatalities associated with opioid overdoses but also creates more opportunities for individuals to engage in treatment and recovery programs, ultimately supporting broader efforts to combat opioid use disorder within the community.
21	Please identify the procurement method utilized for this program, describe the procurement process, and explain why the procurement method identified was used for this program.	The equipment for this program was procured in accordance with established municipal purchasing policies to ensure both fiscal responsibility and compliance with regulatory requirements. Medical gloves were obtained through a competitive bidding process with approved medical supply vendors to guarantee cost-effectiveness and quality. Portable defibrillators were sourced through a state contract vendor, ensuring the equipment met nationally recognized safety and performance standards while also leveraging pre-negotiated government pricing. This approach ensured transparency, accountability, and the acquisition of reliable, life-saving equipment at the best value to the community.
