10	Please share brief information on your subdivisions overarching goals and values to provide context for this year's spending decisions	This year, our funding allocation continued to work on our Law Enforcement Assisted Diversion abilities for those entering the criminal justice system. By expanding our existing technological infrastructure to target pharmacy crimes, especially prescription fraud, pharmacy burglaries, and crimes involving prescription opioid abuse, our agency focused on placing ALPR systems at major chokepoints in the Township that are near major pharmacies (including ones named in the Settlement agreement) to help identify those individuals perpetrating crimes related to opioids and divert them from the criminal justice system to meaningful rehabilitative drug court options focused on recovery instead of incarceration. Similarly, we focused on offering post-arrest treatment for those individuals driving under the influence of drugs - something that can only be detected by a full drug recognition expert (DRE) evaluation, including utilization of a breath testing device to exclude the possibility that the influence is caused by alcohol use. Those individuals arrested for driving under the influence of drugs can be immediately connected with the Helping Hands 365 program, getting treatment and connection with counselors 24/7. We also increased our "drug take back" capabilities at target-rich locations including senior citizen centers and pharmacies. Lastly, we held 2 public assemblies at the Cranford High School with presentations on substance use disorder, mental health, coping mechanisms, and overall wellness during challenging and stressful phases of a teenager's life in an effort to proactively connect counselors and presenters with a target-rich, young population of viewers.

For example, did you rely on evidence-based or evidence-informed practices or strategies, the list of Opioid Remediation uses, a needs assessment, a strategic plan, or an epidemiological analysis? Utilizing local, County and State crimes trend data and experiences within our jurisdiction involving pharmacy burglaries and motor vehicle pursuits stemming from pharmacy crimes, the Cranford Police Department keyed in on a pattern of criminal activity that involved prescription opioid abuse and its black market. Additionally, but expanding our agencies capabilities to have four certified and trained drug recognition experts (DRE), the purchase of the Alcotest expands our capability of running tests, and determining whether an individual is actively under the influence of an opioid, prompting immediate treatment options through the Helping Hands 365 program. Lastly, our goal has been to expand in-school education regarding substance use disorder, handled by the school counselors.

13	Please state this program's statement of impact.	The purpose of this program is to divert as many people from the criminal justice system through immediate recognition that the cause of their influence (while driving a vehicle) is drugs, not alcohol. To determine whether an individual is under the influence of drugs, a police drug-recognition expert (DRE) needs to perform a series of observations, beginning with a "zero" reading of alcohol on the driver's breath. The only way to determine this is through an approved, calibrated, certified Alcotest machine. Anyone under the influence of drugs or alcohol must first be "disproven" as being under the influence of alcohol before proceeding to a drug recognition expert examination. The only means to do this

13 cont.	Please state this program's statement of impact. cont.	is an Alcotest or blood. Once an individual is disproven of being under the influence of alcohol, and suspected by the DRE to be under the influence of drugs, a peer recovery support specialist can be dispatched immediately to the police department to get the (willing) individual into treatment through the Union County Helping Hands 365 initiative. The Peer Recovery Specialists are trained to leverage their personal experiences, build trust, and help each individual connect with resources that enable them to turn their lives around. The local non-profit organization Prevention Links will implement the new program. According to the 2020 US Census the population of Elizabeth is 135,407. 65.3% are of Hispanic descent, 18.7% is of African American decent. According to the New Jersey Office of the Attorney General, when it comes to overdose deaths in New Jersey, “Blacks rose 256%, and death among Hispanics rose 189%, compared to a 38% increase among the state’s white population. Within the city are 5 zip codes: 07201, 07202, 07206, 07208, 07114. Zip code 07114 has the highest percentage of Blacks, but the lowest percentage of Hispanics. Zip code 07206 has the highest percentage of Hispanics and the second lowest percentage of Blacks. Zip code 07201 has neither a high rate of Blacks nor Hispanics but has the highest rate of overdose incidents. That is most likely because it is the main transportation corridor where buses stops, and the local train station is located. In can be argued that this location is where most drug activity tasks place. Our core values are built on equity: a belief that everyone should have the opportunity to reach their maximum potential. That opportunity comes through equal access to education, healthcare, employment, housing, and other forms of assistance that could potentially break cycles of recidivism, relapse, poverty, and negative internal/external environmental conditions that hinder individual progress.

1	Program Name/Title	6th Grade Drug Prevention Program
2	Agency/Funding Recipient Name	City of Rahway
3	Agency/Funding Recipient Category	County or Municipality (including Departments and Municipal Alliances)

4	Primary problem being addressed by this program:	The primary problem being addressed by this program is the rising prevalence of substance use among youth, particularly the increasing rates of opioid use disorder (OUD) and associated mental health challenges. As adolescents face significant pressures related to peer influence, mental health issues, and access to substances, the program aims to provide them with critical knowledge and skills to make informed decisions regarding drug use. Specifically, the program targets several key issues, including the lack of awareness about the risks associated with drug use, particularly opioids and their potential for addiction. It seeks to educate students about the dangers and consequences of substance use, while also addressing the pervasive issue of peer pressure, which often leads young people to experiment with drugs. By equipping students with practical strategies to resist such pressures, the program fosters healthier decision-making. Additionally, the program acknowledges the strong correlation between substance use and mental health conditions, addressing the emotional triggers that may lead to drug use and promoting healthy coping mechanisms for managing stress, anxiety, and other challenges. By targeting 6th graders, the program aims for early intervention before substance use habits are formed, thereby reducing the likelihood of drug experimentation during adolescence. Ultimately, by addressing these interconnected issues, the program aims to create a preventive framework that empowers youth to make informed decisions, fosters resilience, and promotes overall well-being, ultimately reducing the risk of substance use and its associated negative outcomes in the community.
