We are also working with a non-profit organization that specializes in opioid abuse with our local police and ambulance unit to connect residents addicted to opioids to services. To that point, we developed a "Street Team" made up of township staff and the above-mentioned organizations to efficiently connect residents to services and even help pay for services to those who need it. We also used the funds to distribute giveaway bags containing fentanyl and xylazine test strips, Narcan, CPR masks and other educational materials related to opioids. We distributed these bags at local community events.

During the current reporting period (July 1, 2025–June 30, 2026), the City of Newark’s overarching goals and values in its use of opioid abatement funds were centered on reducing the impact of the opioid crisis and providing comprehensive, compassionate support to the City’s most vulnerable residents. Newark prioritized a multidisciplinary, community-based approach by deploying street outreach teams to engage residents who are experiencing homelessness, substance use challenges, and other barriers to accessing care. The City also invested in transitional housing for residents most significantly impacted by the opioid crisis, with the goal of providing stability and a pathway toward long-term housing security. Additionally, opioid abatement funds supported medical, behavioral health, and supportive services for vulnerable individuals in need. These efforts reflect Newark’s commitment to meeting residents where they are, addressing both the immediate and underlying needs associated with opioid use, and connecting individuals to coordinated services that promote health, stability, recovery, and overall well-being. Overall, the City’s use of opioid abatement funds was guided by the values of equity, accessibility, compassion, harm reduction, community engagement, and coordinated care, with a focus on reaching residents who are often the most difficult to engage through traditional service systems.
