

State Parole Board Statement Concerning COVID-19

“The health and safety of the New Jersey State Parole Board’s parolees, employees, and the public remain paramount during the current COVID-19 pandemic. The State Parole Board is obligated to follow state statutes concerning the release of offenders on parole. Additionally, we comply with the directives outlined in Governor Murphy’s recent Executive Order # 124. The New Jersey State Parole Board continues to process parole decisions per those directives.”

-New Jersey State Parole Board