

NJ PINELANDS COMMISSION
SUBSTANDARD LOT (AKA GRANDFATHER) PROVISION ELIGIBILITY AFFIDAVIT

Instructions for Applicant:

Provided that all of the below conditions are met, the substandard lot (“grandfather”) provision allows for the development of one dwelling on an existing lot of at least 1 acre¹.

Eligibility Requirements:

1. The parcel was owned continuously by the applicant or a member of the applicant’s immediate family since February 7, 1979;
2. The dwelling will be the principal residence of the applicant; and
3. All contiguous (adjacent) lots that were in common ownership since February 7, 1979 are vacant and included in the application.

To demonstrate that you qualify under the grandfather provision, please complete, sign in the presence of a notary, have notarized and return the attached affidavit.

Please note: You must also submit a copy of a deed indicating that the parcel of land was owned continuously by the applicant or a member of the applicant’s immediate family since February 7, 1979. If the deed describes various parcels, please highlight the relevant section of the deed describing the parcel involved with the application.

¹ A dwelling proposed on a lot of less than 3.2 acres must use an alternate design septic system.
