

Nutley students clean up parks, school grounds

JULY 16, 2015 LAST UPDATED: THURSDAY, JULY 16, 2015, 12:31 AM
NUTLEY SUN - DALE MINCEY/STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER

Walker Middle School's eighth-grade teacher Dave Johnston leads Nutley students during a Passaic Valley Sewerage Commission cleanup at Yanticaw Park.

The Passaic Valley Sewerage Commission sponsored a volunteer, environmental cleanup in Nutley. The project took place in Yanticaw Park, Memorial Park, John H. Walker Middle School and the Nutley High School athletic complex (The Oval).

From left, Walker Middle School students Christian Pesci, Gabriella Capalbo and Natalia Acevedo remove collected refuse from Yanticaw Park.

More than 450 students from Walker Middle School combed the areas for trash and debris on Wednesday, June 17. PVSC provided supervision and materials, as part of its Educational Outreach Program, managed by the River Restoration Department.