Biographical Note

Albert Peterson was a surveyor who worked in Cumberland and Cape May counties from circa 1840 to circa 1885. The son of John and Milicent Peterson, Albert was born in 1806. He and his wife Eliza resided in Dennis Township, Cape May County with their nine children until his death sometime before 1900.

Content Note

Though this manuscript collection belonged to Albert Peterson, the majority of the documents record the land transactions of the Lee family of Maurice River Township, Cumberland County. The record group includes agreements, bonds, leases, mortgages and deeds as well as a collection of personal letters and various other documents filed by subject. The collection spans the years 1706 to 1894 with the majority dating in the early nineteenth-century.
