Application Handbook & Funding Guidelines

Fiscal Year 2023
CHPRD Application Handbook and Funding Guidelines

CHPRD

CHPRD Center for Hispanic Policy, Research and Development (CHPRD) was established in 1975 mainly to address the needs of the Garden State’s Hispanic community recognizing the importance of this growing segment of New Jersey’s population, which may have been historically under-served. Among other things, the office provides funding for Hispanic initiatives in the Garden State, notably via Hispanic-oriented community-based organizations (CBOs). CHPRD is managed by an executive director and the Center's advisory committee members are directly appointed by the governor.

CHPRD administers an annual appropriation from the State of New Jersey. CHPRD seeks to empower, provide financial support and technical assistance to primarily Hispanic community-based organizations throughout the state and also ensures the executive and legislative branches are informed of policies and legislative initiatives with potential impact on the Hispanic community. CHPRD seeks to promote a new model of community development that is focused on making REAL impacts in people’s lives while helping CBOs achieve greater self-sufficiency.

Mission and Goals
The mission of the New Jersey Center for Hispanic Policy, Research and Development is to improve the quality of life and the empowerment of the state’s Hispanic community using CHPRD’s new model of community development. Its goals are:

- Increase public and private resources invested well in the growth, development and long-term stability of high-quality Hispanic Community Based Organizations.
- Develop public/private partnerships that enrich and promote the Office’s programs and initiatives in support of Hispanics across the State.
- Provide the necessary tools and assistance in creating training and employment opportunities for Hispanics.
- Facilitate the professional and leadership development of Hispanics.

CHPRD Funding Philosophy
Center for Hispanic Policy, Research and Development, with a mission of service to the entire state, views the recipients of the funds entrusted to it, as partners in the delivery of programs and services that create and sustain public value to people and communities in our great state.

It views the funding it provides as an investment in organizations and the people they serve. As a custodian of public funds, CHPRD insists on maintaining the highest standards of accountability both in its operations and in those of the organizations in which it invests.

It is equally committed to the principals of fairness, equal access and funding determinations based on merit. This is facilitated through the processes of independent review clearly focused on criteria of excellence and serving the needs of the state’s Hispanic community.

Moreover, CHPRD strives to attain a mandate for leadership in the field by encouraging high standards, best practices, collaboration, and leadership. This will be facilitated by providing assistance for growth and development, stimulating and celebration the very greatest achievements.
possible and in creating avenues, incentives and support to Hispanic community-based organizations (HCBOs).
