

DR. CLEMENT PRICE (1945-2014)

The New Jersey Historical Commission joins other arts, history, and cultural organizations across the state and nation in mourning the passing of Dr. Clement Price.

A monumental figure, Dr. Price's legacy lives on in the knowledge and wisdom he bestowed, the wealth of work left behind, and the countless lives touched over decades.

The Historical Commission is forever indebted to his leadership and contributions to New Jersey history, from co-founding the annual Marion Thompson Wright lecture series to enriching the discussion and understanding of the African-American experience. His kindness and humanitarianism will never be forgotten.
