Director's Statement

The Stedman Art Gallery is pleased to present the work of some of the finest visual, craft, media, and design artists in our state in this exhibition of 1991/92 and 1992/93 New Jersey State Council on the Arts Fellowship Award recipients. The exceptional vitality and creativity of New Jersey's artists are clearly evident in the work included here.

My heartfelt thanks go to Stedman staff members Noreen Scott Garrity, Waltha Webb, and especially Nancy Maguire for the valuable contributions they made to this complex project. We greatly appreciated Tom Moran's guidance and the assistance we received from other members of the New Jersey State Council on the Arts staff. Our deepest gratitude is extended to the participating artists, whose wealth of talent has made this exhibition a truly rewarding experience for us all.

The New Jersey State Council on the Arts, under the inspired leadership of Chairperson Sharon A. Harrington and Executive Director Barbara F. Russo, provides more than funding for our artists and arts organizations. It is also an important source of encouragement and support. We gratefully acknowledge their efforts in creating the strong artistic environment that exists today in New Jersey.

New Jersey State Council on the Arts

Each year since 1971, the New Jersey State Council on the Arts has awarded fellowships to some of the state's best most promising artists. A special part of the Council's activity focuses upon the exhibition of the works of the recipients of such fellowship grants. It is a great pleasure to see the works of these artists exhibited within the galleries of a very important Southern New Jersey cultural facility, the Stedman Art Gallery of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, in Camden. The works on view in the "New Jersey State Council on the Arts 1992-1993 Fellowship Exhibition: Visual Arts - Crafts - Media - Design Arts", continues the fine tradition of exhibiting the wealth of creative talent in New Jersey.

I offer special thanks to the Stedman Art Gallery for hosting this exhibition, and to all of the participating artists for bringing us the results of their creative endeavors as New Jersey State Council on the Arts fellowship recipients.

Daniel J. Dalton
Secretary of State

Foreword

The New Jersey State Council on the Arts is very proud to co-sponsor this exhibition highlighting the works of recipients of fiscal year 1992 and 1993 fellowships in visual arts, crafts, media and design arts. Together with the Stedman Art Gallery, we celebrate the achievements of some of the most creative talents who live and work in the state. It is fitting that this exhibition opens in October, during the celebration of National Arts and Humanities Month.

Since 1971, the council has awarded fellowship grants to professional New Jersey artists in recognition of the outstanding excellence of their work. Fellowship grants enable these artists to pursue their artistic goals, allowing them to work more freely and to obtain the time and space necessary for their creative endeavors. A Council fellowship brings recognition and distinction and has an invaluable impact on their careers.

The artists represented in this exhibition received fellowships based solely on artistic merit. Applications are reviewed by professional peer panels consisting of some of the most nationally and internationally prominent artists at work in their respective mediums. The review process is anonymous and the sole criteria of selection is the excellence or great promise of the artist's work. We are very proud of the fairness of this process and of the overall high quality of the artists awarded over the years. Many fellowship recipients from past years have gone on to make great contributions to the cultural life of New Jersey and the nation.

We would like to congratulate all of the artists participating in this exhibition. We thank the Stedman Art Gallery of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey for hosting this exhibition. We especially wish to thank Virginia Oberlin Steel, Director of the Stedman Art Gallery and Assistant Director Nancy Maguire, for their professionalism and care in the planning of this exhibition. The Council looks forward to provide New Jersey artists and arts organizations with important opportunities such as the 1992-1993 Fellowship Exhibition.

Sharon Harrington, Chairman
Barbara F. Russo, Executive Director
Tom Moran, Visual Arts Coordinator
