Resources for You.

The Transgender Information Hub offers a number of different resources for non-binary and transgender individuals. These resources range from legal aid, mental and medical support, and other forms of support and resources.

Mental Health

- Where can I get mental health support?

If you are having suicidal thoughts, need emergency mental health support, or are worried about someone else, call or text 988 to connect with a trained crisis counselor 24/7 at the Suicide and Crisis Lifeline.

Name Change

- How do I change my legal name?

Step 1: Fill out court documents
Step 2: Pay the administrative fee
Step 3: Send your documents to court

Visit the website for forms and additional details

Protections

- Where can I get legal help?

New Jersey has a wide range of anti-discrimination laws. Legal Services of New Jersey provides legal aid to low-income New Jerseyans. Visit the website for links and descriptions regarding legal aid.

Medical Support

- Where can I get medical help?

Visit the website for a directory of over 200 Healthcare providers that have proactively identified themselves as LGBTQ-friendly. Featured on the website is the Garden State Equality Affirming Health Map & other specific centers that provide necessary services.
