I-78 eastbound Exit 29 to I-287 northbound closed for emergency repairs in Bedminster, Somerset County Closure will continue through the evening commute

(Trenton) – New Jersey Department of Transportation (NJDOT) officials today announced I-78 eastbound Exit 29 to I-287 northbound is closed for emergency repairs in Bedminster, Somerset County. The ramp from I-78 eastbound to I-287 southbound remains open.

Beginning at approximately 11 a.m., NJDOT's contractor, ML Ruberton, closed I-78 eastbound Exit 29 to I-287 northbound in Bedminster to repair guiderail that was struck by a tractor trailer. The following signed detour will remain in place through the evening commute:

I-78 eastbound Exit 29 to I-287 northbound detour:

- Motorists traveling on I-78 eastbound wishing to take Exit 29 to I-287 northbound will be directed to keep right and take the ramp to I-287 southbound
- Take Exit 17 to Route 202/206 southbound Somerville/Flemington
- Merge onto Route 202 southbound and keep right
- Take the ramp to Commons Way/Garretson Road
- Turn left onto Commons Way and cross the bridge over Route 202
- Stay right and take the ramp to Route 202/206 northbound towards I-287 northbound
- Merge onto Route 202/206 northbound
- Keep left and take the ramp to I-287 northbound/Netcong/Norristown

The precise timing of the work is subject to change due to weather or other factors. Motorists are encouraged to check NJDOT's traffic information website www.511nj.org for construction updates and real-time travel information.
