Nontaxable Investment Income

Understanding Income Tax

Most investment income is taxable in New Jersey as interest, dividends, or capital gains.

However, some interest income is exempt from tax, including:

- Interest and gains from government debt obligations (such as bonds) of the State of New Jersey or its political subdivisions. These subdivisions can include municipalities, counties, school districts and authorities;
- Interest and gains from debt obligations of the federal government, such as U.S. Savings Bonds and Treasury Bills;
- Certain distributions from New Jersey Qualified Investment Funds. (See definition below.);
- Distributions from mutual funds on interest earned from federal debt;
- Earnings on distributions from qualified State tuition programs. This includes the New Jersey Better Educational Savings Trust (NJBEST) program; and
- Earnings on tuition savings programs formed under Section 529A of the Internal Revenue Code. This includes the State's Achieving a Better Life Experience (ABLE) program.

Taxable Debt Obligations

Interest and gains you receive from debt obligations of other states and local governments are taxed by New Jersey and must be reported on your resident return or nonresident return.

Gain or Loss From Sale

When determining your capital gains or income from selling securities, do not include income or gains from debt obligations (bonds) that are exempt from New Jersey tax. You also cannot deduct losses from sales of exempt bonds when calculating net gains or losses on Schedule NJ-DOP, Form NJ-1040 (or Part I, Form NJ-1040NR).

Qualified Investment Funds

Nontaxable

Distributions and gains from a New Jersey qualified investment fund are exempt from State Income Tax if they are derived from the qualified nontaxable debt obligations held by the fund.

A qualified investment fund must:

- Be a regulated investment company;
- Invest 80% or more of its funds (other than cash or receivables) in securities that are exempt from New Jersey Income Tax; and
- Complete and retain Form IF-1, Certification of Qualified Investment Fund, to document its status. This certification does not need to be filed with us, but must be made available upon request.

Taxable

A fund may hold up to 20% of its investments in debt obligations that are taxable. You must report the portion of the fund's distributions and gains that are derived from taxable investments as dividends and/or capital gains (as indicated on your Form 1099) on your New Jersey Income Tax return.

Funds that are considered a New Jersey qualified investment fund must notify shareholders by February 15 about the nontaxable portion of their distribution. Contact your broker to determine if you own part of a qualified investment fund for New Jersey Income Tax purposes.

Mutual Funds

Distributions received by shareholders of mutual funds are subject to New Jersey Income Tax as dividends and/or capital gains, unless the fund is considered a qualified investment fund for New Jersey purposes (see Qualified Investment Funds). However, distributions that are attributed to interest earned on federal debt obligations are not taxable regardless of whether they are held by a qualified investment fund.

Unit Investment Trusts

A unit investment trust is a fund with a fixed number of units, which means a portfolio of securities such as stocks or bonds that does not change. This differs from certain mutual funds in which portfolio managers periodically buy and sell investments to enhance the fund's returns. The trust also expires after a specific period of time, unlike most mutual funds. Investors receive their share of the assets when the trust is terminated. Interest from
