About the Office of the Secretary of Higher Education (OSHE)

"Every New Jersey, regardless of life circumstances, should have the opportunity to obtain a high-quality credential that prepares them for life after college." Achieving this student-centered vision for higher education in New Jersey is the overriding mission of the Office of the Secretary of Higher Education (OSHE). The Secretary of Higher Education advises the Governor on higher education initiatives and proposed legislation. OSHE reviews requests for State support from institutions and communicates with higher education leaders, faculty, and students across the state under the direction of the Secretary. OSHE released the state plan for higher education in March 2019 and coordinates its implementation. OSHE is a fast-paced and entrepreneurial agency that strives to make the state's vision for higher education a reality.

Job Description:

The OSHE Finance, Research, and Accountability division oversees the agency's financial operations, compliance, and fiscal management. The primary role of the Auditor is to conduct audits to determine compliance with regulations and the accuracy and legitimacy of financial transactions and records that are under OSHE's and the State of New Jersey's regulatory jurisdiction. In addition to employing auditing methodologies, the Auditor will prepare reports, statements, comments, and recommendations, identify risks, and execute preventative actions in alignment with OSHE's fiscal monitoring plan. This position requires strong organizational skills, ethical values, and interpretive analysis. The position is unclassified and will report to the Director of Compliance. For newly hired individuals, the starting salary will normally be at the minimum of the salary range.

Responsibilities

- Performs financial and operational audits, internal control reviews, and program evaluations.
- Prepares reports, statements, comments, and recommendations for submission to superiors concerning accounting methods and procedures investigated or reviewed.
- Advises accounting and other personnel on accounting problems, established accounting procedures, and statutory requirements.
- Plans and organizes audit procedures to ensure efficient completion and maintenance of security and confidentiality.
- Performs fiscal monitoring, investigation, and reviews to determine or evaluate eligibility for federal or state reimbursement, award of contracts, or compliance with federal, state, and local regulations.
- Audits revenues, payroll records, invoices, and other financial support documentation to prepare audit reports of cost and other financial summaries and statements.
- Contribute to implementing innovative improvements and tactical changes to OSHE financial processes and systems.
- Other duties, as assigned by the Secretary of Higher Education, Deputy Secretary, Chief of Staff, and Assistant Secretary.

Qualifications:

The ideal candidate must be quick on their feet, a multitasker, and resourceful, able to work independently. The candidate should be flexible and able to engage in both short- and long-term planning in a fast-paced environment.

- Knowledge of accounting principles, standards, techniques, technology, and their application to specific accounting situations in accordance with statutory or established agency procedures.
- Demonstrated interpersonal and communication skills necessary to establish and maintain effective working relationships with OSHE colleagues and fiscal staff in other agencies and institutions of higher education.
- Knowledge of the methods used in preventing, discovering, and correcting discrepancies in financial records.
- Strong evidence of significant financial, auditing, forensic accounting, and compliance experience.
- Ability to review and synthesize financial statements, conduct financial analyses, interpret data, and identify trends and variances.
- Strong analytical skills with the ability to collect, organize, analyze, and disseminate significant amounts of information.
- Proficiency in technology and the use of integrated information systems.
- Strong attention to detail.
- Effective communication and presentation skills.
- Evidence of strong planning and report writing.
- Strong project management and organizational skills

Requirements:

EXPERIENCE: Six (6) years of professional accounting or auditing experience, including or supplemented by twenty-one (21) semester hour credits in accounting subjects.

EDUCATION:

Possession of a Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in accounting, finance or business administration, including or supplemented by twenty-one (21) semester hour credits in accounting subjects; and two (2) years of the above-mentioned professional experience.

OR

Possession of a valid certificate as a CPA issued by the NJ Board of Accountancy; and two (2) years of the above-mentioned professional experience.

RESUME NOTE: Eligibility determinations will be based only upon the information presented on the resume along with other supporting documents. Applicants who possess a degree from a college or university outside the United States must provide an evaluation of the transcripts from a recognized evaluation service at the time of submission. Failure to do so may result in your ineligibility.

LICENSE: Appointees will be required to possess a driver's license valid in New Jersey only if the operation of a vehicle, rather than employee mobility, is necessary to perform the position's essential duties.

Residency Requirement:

In accordance with the New Jersey First Act P.L. 2011 c.70, effective September 1, 2011, new employees are required to obtain New Jersey residency within one (1) year of employment.

Work Authorization: Applicants must be authorized to work in the United States according to the Department of Homeland Security, United States Citizenship and Immigration Services regulations. OSHE does not provide sponsorship or accept student OPT/CPT programs or F1 or H1B work authorization visas.
