

APPENDIX A
ENVIRONMENTAL PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

ENVIRONMENTAL PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

Yashodhara Saha is a licensed professional engineer (PE) in New York. Yashodhara Saha has over seventeen years of professional experience dealing with site assessment projects and environmental due diligence sites. Her professional experience includes: Phase I environmental site assessments (transportation, residential, commercial, and industrial sites); Phase II environmental site assessments to support property transactions and business acquisitions; complex contaminated site assessments; federal superfund site; remediation; and design and construction. She earned a master's degree in Chemical Engineering from The City University of New York and participates in regular professional development for continuing education.