Introduction

The Property Tax Reimbursement Program is designed to reimburse senior citizens and disabled persons for property tax increases. For applicants who met the eligibility requirements as of December 31, 2004, and again, as of December 31, 2005, the amount of the 2005 reimbursement will be the difference between the amount of property taxes that were due and paid by the applicant in 2004 and the amount of property taxes that were due and paid in 2005, provided, of course, that the amount paid in 2005 was greater than the amount paid in 2004. For mobile home owners, property tax means 18% of the annual site fees paid to the owner of a mobile home park.

Homeowners and mobile home owners who are receiving FAIR rebates and/or property tax credits or deductions may also receive the property tax reimbursement if they meet the eligibility requirements.

NOTE: Benefits available under this program may be affected by State budgetary constraints. Please check our Web site at www.state.nj.us/treasury/taxation/propfrez.shtml or call 1-800-323-4400 for updated information on benefit amounts and payment information.

Reminder

The FAIR Rebate and Property Tax Reimbursement Programs are separate programs and separate applications must be filed every year for each program.

Qualifications

To qualify for the 2005 reimbursement, an applicant must meet all of the following requirements:

- You must have been age 65 or older or receiving Federal Social Security disability benefits as of December 31, 2004. If receiving Federal Social Security disability, you must have continued to receive such benefits through December 31, 2005 (you do NOT qualify if you are receiving Social Security disability benefits on behalf of someone else); and
- You must have lived in New Jersey continuously since before January 1, 1995, as either a homeowner or a renter; and

- For both 2004 and 2005 you must have paid the full amount of the property taxes due on your home.

NOTE: You may not claim a reimbursement for a vacation home, a "second home," or property which you rent to someone else.

2005 Form PTR-1 Instructions

Income Standards

With very few exceptions, ALL INCOME that you received during the year, including income which you are not required to report on your New Jersey income tax return (Form NJ-1040), must be taken into account to determine eligibility for the property tax reimbursement. Income limits for eligibility will increase annually by the amount of the maximum Social Security benefit cost-of-living increase for that year for single and married persons, respectively.

If you have a loss in one category of income, it may be applied against income in the same category. However, if you have a net loss in one category of income, it cannot be applied against income or gains in another. In the case of a net loss in any category, make no entry on the corresponding line.

Examples of possible sources of income (gross amounts unless otherwise noted) are as follows:

- Social Security Benefits (including Medicare Part B premiums)
- Total Pension Income (including annuity and IRA distributions)
- Salaries and Wages, Bonuses, Commissions, and Fees
- Unemployment Benefits
- Interest (taxable and exempt)
- Dividends
- Net Capital Gains
- Net Rental Income
- Net Business Income
- Support Payments
- Inheritances
- Royalties
- Disability Benefits
- Fair Market Value of Prizes and Awards
- Net Gambling and Lottery Winnings (including New Jersey)
- All Other Income

Sources of income which should NOT be taken into account to determine eligibility:

- Reparation or restitution payments to victims of National Socialist (Nazi) persecution; returns of property (tangible or intangible) seized, lost, or misappropriated as a result of Nazi actions or policies and any cash values in replacement of such property; payments of insurance policies purchased by victims of Nazi persecution; and any accumulated or accrued interest on such
- Benefit amounts received under the New Jersey State Lifeline Credit Program/Tenants Lifeline Assistance Program
- Benefits received as New Jersey State homestead rebates
- Benefits received as NJ SAVER rebates
- Benefits received as New Jersey FAIR rebates
- Capital gains on the sale of a principal residence after May 6, 1997, of up to $250,000 if single, and up to $500,000 if married. Capital gains in excess of the allowable exclusion must be included in income. (Capital gains and the exclusion of all or part of the gain on the sale of a principal residence are computed in the same manner for both Federal and State income tax purposes.)
- Stipends from the Volunteers in Service to America (VISTA) and Foster Grandparents programs
- Proceeds received from a spouse's life insurance policy
- Agent Orange Payments
- Reparation payments to Japanese Americans by the Federal Government pursuant to sections 105 and 106 of the Civil Liberties Act of 1988, P.L. 100-383 (50 U.S.C. App. 1989b-4 and 1989b-5)

Filing Requirements

Due Date June 1, 2006

Eligible applicants must file the 2005 Property Tax Reimbursement Application (Form PTR-1) on or before June 1, 2006. Applications postmarked on or before the due date are considered to be filed on time. Applications postmarked after the due date are considered to be filed late.

Proof of Age/Disability

Applicants 65 years of age or older must submit proof of age with their applications. Examples of acceptable documentation include copies of the following:

- Birth certificate
- Driver's license
- Church records

Applicants who are not 65 years of age or older, but are receiving Federal Social Security disability benefits, must submit a copy of the Social Security Award Letter indicating that the applicant was receiving benefits based on their own social security number.

NOTE: If your marital status is "Married," the same person who was receiving disability benefits on December 31, 2004, must still be receiving benefits on December 31, 2005.

Proof of Payment

Applicants are required to submit with their applications proof of the amount of property taxes that were due and paid. The Division of Taxation will accept copies of the following:

HOMEOWNERS

1. Property tax bills for both 2004 and 2005, along with
2. Proof of the amount of property taxes paid which may be either:
 - a. Copies of cancelled checks or receipts for both 2004 and 2005 showing the amount of property taxes paid; or
 - b. Copies of Form 1098 for both 2004 and 2005 which you received from your mortgage company showing the amount of property taxes which were paid out of your escrow account.

Verification Form. We realize that you may not be able to locate your 2004 and 2005 property tax bills or proof of the amount of taxes paid. For your convenience, we have included a form in this booklet (Form PTR-1A) which you may submit as proof of the amount of property taxes due and paid.

NOTE: If you choose to use Form PTR-1A, Part II must be completed and certified by your local tax collector as to the amount of property taxes due and paid for both 2004 and 2005.

Multiple owners (if home is owned by more than one person, other than husband and wife). If title to the property is held by the eligible applicant with others as tenants in common or joint tenants (except in the case of a husband and wife), the applicant is only eligible for the proportionate share of the reimbursement which reflects his or her percentage of ownership. The shares of ownership of the property are considered to be held equally by all owners. If the shares of ownership are not equal, the applicant must provide documentation as to the percentage of ownership.

Multiple units (if home consists of more than one unit). If the property consists of more than one unit, the applicant is only eligible for the proportionate share of the reimbursement which reflects the percentage of the property used as his or her principal residence.

MOBILE HOME OWNERS

1. A copy of the contract(s) or agreement(s) for both 2004 and 2005 from the mobile home park showing the amount of your site fees, along with

 - b. A signed statement from the mobile home park management showing the amount of site fees paid for both 2004 and 2005.

Verification Form. In place of 1 and 2 above, mobile home owners may provide a completed Form PTR-1B.

NOTE: If you choose to use Form PTR-1B, Part II must be completed and certified by the owner or manager of the mobile home park as to the amount of mobile home park site fees due and paid for both 2004 and 2005.

Deceased Residents

If a person met the eligibility requirements on December 31, 2005, but died before filing an application, Form PTR-1 should be filed by the surviving spouse, executor, or administrator. Print "Deceased" and the date of death above the decedent's name. Indicate on Line 2 the marital status of the applicant(s) on December 31, 2004, and indicate on Line 3 the marital status of the applicant(s) on December 31, 2005. In the area where you sign the return write "Filing as Surviving Spouse," if appropriate. A personal representative filing the application must sign in his or her official capacity. Any reimbursement check will be issued to the surviving spouse or estate.

When a spouse dies prior to December 31, 2005, the surviving spouse must satisfy all eligibility requirements for both 2004 and 2005 himself/herself to qualify for the reimbursement. The marital status of a surviving spouse who does not remarry during the year is "Single."

Reimbursement Checks

For qualified applicants who apply before May 1, 2006, reimbursement checks for the difference between the 2004 and 2005 property taxes (or 18% of the annual site fees) will be sent on or before July 15, 2006. Qualified applicants who apply between May 1 and June 1, 2006, will be sent reimbursement checks on or before September 1, 2006.

NOTE: Benefits available under this program may be affected by State budgetary constraints. Please check our Web site at www.state.nj.us/treasury/taxation/propfrez.shtml or call 1-800-323-4400 for updated information on benefit amounts and payment information.

Privacy Act Notification

The Federal Privacy Act of 1974 requires an agency requesting information from individuals to inform them why the request is being made and how the information is being used.

Your social security number is used primarily to account for and give credit for tax payments. The Division of Taxation also uses social security numbers in the administration and enforcement of all tax laws for which it is responsible. In addition, the Division of Taxation is required by law to forward an annual list to the Administrative Office of the Courts containing the names, addresses, and social security numbers of individuals who file a New Jersey tax return or FAIR rebate application. This list will be used to avoid duplication of names on jury lists.

Completing the Application Name and Address

Place the peel-off label in the name and address section at the top of the application. You will find your preprinted name and address label inside the insert at the front of this booklet. Do not use the mailing label if any of the information is inaccurate. If the information on the preprinted label is incorrect or if you did not receive a preprinted label, print or type your name (last name first), complete address, and zip code in the spaces provided. Be sure to include your spouse's name if your marital status as of December 31, 2005, was married. Your reimbursement and next year's application will be sent to the address you provide.

If your mailing address is different from the address of the property for which the reimbursement is being claimed, print or type the property address in the space provided on Line 9 of this application.

Social Security Number

If your marital status as of December 31, 2005, was single, you must enter your social security number in the space provided on the application, one digit in each box (□). Your social security number is not printed on your name and address label. If your marital status as of December 31, 2005, was married, you must report both spouses' numbers in the order in which the names are listed on the application. If you were married but living apart from your spouse, and you do not have access to or receive support from your spouse's income, you are considered "Single" for purposes of the property tax reimbursement and you should enter only your social security number on the application.

If you (or your spouse) do not have a social security number, file Form SS-5 with the Social Security Administration to apply for a social security number. If you are not eligible for a social security number, you must file Form W-7 with the Internal Revenue Service to obtain an individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). If you applied for but have not received an ITIN by the due date, enclose a copy of your Federal Form W-7 application with Form PTR-1.

County/Municipality Code

Enter your four-digit county/municipality code, one digit in each box (□), from the table on page 10. This code identifies the county and municipality of your current residence. The county and municipality codes in these instructions are for Division of Taxation purposes only.

NOTE: If the local name of the place where you live is not listed, enter the code for the municipality where the property taxes were paid on your dwelling. (Go to www.state.nj.us/infobank/locality.htm for a listing of local names in the State and the county and municipality in which they are located.)

You are only eligible for a proportionate share of the reimbursement based on the portion of the property that you occupied as your principal residence, even if you paid all of the property taxes.

Multi-Unit Property With Multiple Owners. If you answered "Yes" at both Lines 11a and 12a for 2005, use the percentage of occupancy on Line 12b to calculate your proportionate share of property taxes.
